With summer coming and going so quick, its back to school for our kids, and good news for our homes. The laughter and the sounds of the little ones will be heard out back again. We love those mornings and afternoons when the children at the school behind us are outside. The children bring a lot of joy, laughs, and stories to all of your loved ones.

Thank you so much to those of you who baked and donated for the bake sale. Wow, made another $200 and there was a lot of yummy bake goods. The 2009 Walk to Remember is coming up October 3rd. Please sign up in the office to walk with our team. Lots of fun and all proceeds go to the Alzheimer's Network.

Family support meeting is this month. Please come, meet, and welcome other families and support our meeting.

Labor day BBQ this month. Bring your favorite dish and let's have some family time and enjoy a BBQ together. Please be sure to respond to letters regarding care plan meeting either by phone or email if not able to attend.

Sincerely, Michele & Crystale

Television Favorites

September is the most important month in the world of television. Major networks premiere new shows in the hopes of launching a hit. Very often, a show airs for a season, fails, and is never heard of again. But every once in a while, a show airs that becomes a fan favorite and lives forever in reruns.

Below are some memorable television shows celebrating their birthdays in September. See if you can find them. (Ignore spaces between words.)

September Birthdays

If you were born from August 23-September 22, you are a Virgo, the Virgin. If you were born from September 23-October 22, you are a Libra, the Scales. Virgos are logical, conscientious, hard-workers who value stability and are always ready to offer a helping hand. Libras are elegant, kind, gentle, and, like the balancing scales that represent them, love harmony and balance.
